The Department of Early Learning is hosting a conference specific to the needs of providers working with tribal children and families. This conference provides professional training opportunities for child care providers, teachers, and parents to gain skills and knowledge for their work with diverse native groups of families and children. The people who attend this conference are from different professional focuses, geographic locations and personal cultures, offering a unique opportunity for participants to collaborate, network and learn together.

STARS credit will be provided but presenters do not have to be STARS approved. Presentation proposals will be reviewed by a committee. Chosen proposals and presenters will be notified by July 30, 2008.
